The following items are important to remember:

- ◆ The last grade that may be used to calculate the three weeks regaining of eligibility must be entered on the ending date. Grades recorded after the ending date cannot be used for eligibility.
- ◆ Students will become eligible or ineligible at the end of the school day seven days from the ending date of the grading period.
- ◆ Students can regain eligibility at the end of the three-week grading period. They cannot lose eligibility.
- ◆ The third six-week grading period ends on Friday, December 16, 2011. Students are eligible during the Christmas holidays.
- ◆ Students are eligible during a school holiday of a full calendar week or more (Christmas, Spring Break).

If a grading period or three-week evaluation period ends on the last class day prior to a school holiday of one calendar week or more (i.e. Spring Break, Christmas), the seven calendar days grace period to lose eligibility, and the seven calendar day waiting period to regain eligibility begins the first day that classes resume.

- ◆ Students lose eligibility for a three school week period. For purposes of the law, “three school weeks” is defined as “15” class days. Exception: One, but only one, of the three school weeks may consist of only three or four class days, provided school has been dismissed for a scheduled holiday period. Two class days do not constitute a “school week” for purposes of this law except Thanksgiving week if schools are on holiday Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.
- ◆ A seven calendar day grace period to lose eligibility, and a seven calendar day waiting period to regain eligibility, are still in effect.

Example:

- ◆ School begins 8/22.
- ◆ First six-weeks ends on 9/30.
- ◆ Students regain/lose eligibility seven calendar days later on 10/7.

Ineligible students’ grades are checked on 10/22. If they are passing all courses, they will regain eligibility seven calendar days later on 10/28 at the end of the school day.
